

The use of cell phones aboard airboard should remain prohibited. Many individuals appear to be unaware of the volume of their voice/conversation using cell phones and contribute to conflicts inflight and Flight Attendants should not be expected to police the usage of cell phone conversations.